FIND YOURSELF IN EVANSVILLE

2nd Language

EAT IN EVANSVILLE

2ND LANGUAGE: A vibrant, chef-driven restaurant blending globally inspired flavors with refined technique. Seasonal ingredients shine in thoughtfully crafted small plates and entrées, paired with a curated cocktail and wine list that elevates every bite.

LONESTAR BBQ: A down-to-earth smokehouse serving slow-smoked brisket, tender ribs, and Southern sides. From hearty platters to house-made sauces with just the right kick, it's a go-to spot for bold flavor and generous portions.

DAMSEL BREW PUB: A welcoming neighborhood brewpub pairing craft beer with elevated pub fare. Sip on small-batch brews while enjoying burgers, sandwiches, and shareable bites in a relaxed, lively setting.

HONEY MOON COFFEE CO: A bright and inviting café known for expertly crafted espresso drinks, smooth cold brews, and fresh pastries. It's the perfect stop for a morning pick-me-up or a cozy afternoon reset.

PLAY IN EVANSVILLE

EVANSVILLE PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA: Experience the power of live symphonic music bringing classical masterworks and contemporary favorites to life.

EVANSVILLE OTTERS @ BOSSE FIELD: Step into history at America's third-oldest professional ballpark and catch the crack of the bat under the lights. Bosse Field famously served as a filming location for A League of Their Own, adding lore to the tradition of Otters baseball, classic ballpark bites, and summer nights.

BURDETTE PARK AND AQUATIC CENTER: Splash into summer fun with water slides, wave pools, and shaded picnic spots perfect for a full day outdoors. Expansive green space, walking trails, and playgrounds make it a go-to destination for recreation and relaxation.

WESSELMAN PICKLEBALL COURTS: Grab a paddle and join the fast-growing craze at dedicated outdoor courts designed for friendly competition. Whether rallying with friends or jumping into league play, it's an active, social way to enjoy the game in the heart of the city.

EXPLORE IN EVANSVILLE

CMOE CHILDREN'S MUSEUM: Recently renovated and reimagined, this hands-on wonderland is where creativity and curiosity take center stage. Interactive exhibits invite kids to climb, build, experiment, and imagine.

EVANSVILLE WARTIME MUSEUM: Discover powerful stories of service and sacrifice through immersive exhibits and restored military vehicles. The museum highlights Evansville's significant role in America's wartime production—an impactful connection as the nation commemorates America 250.

ARWOOD TREEHOUSE @ WESSELMAN WOODS: Climb into the canopy at this fully accessible treehouse overlooking one of the largest urban old-growth forests in the country.

ANGEL MOUNDS: Step back more than 1,000 years at one of the nation's best-preserved Native American sites. This 600-acre archaeological landscape was once home to a thriving Mississippian community, with earthen mounds and plazas, while an updated museum with interactive exhibits interprets its legacy.
